

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

|                            |   |                              |
|----------------------------|---|------------------------------|
| ABBVIE INC. and ABBVIE     | : |                              |
| BIOTECHNOLOGY LTD          | : |                              |
|                            | : |                              |
| v.                         | : | CIVIL NO. 17-cv-01065-MSG-RL |
|                            | : |                              |
| BOEHRINGER INGELHEIM       | : |                              |
| INTERNATIONAL GMBH,        | : |                              |
| BOEHRINGER INGELHEIM       | : |                              |
| PHARMACEUTICALS, INC., and | : |                              |
| BOEHRINGER INGELHEIM       | : |                              |
| FREMONT, INC.              | : |                              |

ORDER ENFORCING PREVIOUS ORDER CONCERNING DISCOVERY

For the reasons explained in my Memorandum filed today, I find that the plaintiffs have failed to comply with my Order compelling production of documents (Doc. No. 112). Therefore, on this 8th day of February, 2019, it is

ORDERED

That plaintiffs' motion to enforce (Doc. No. 233) is GRANTED. On or before March 11, 2019 the plaintiffs will produce all documents required under my Order of June 4, 2018 (Doc. No. 112) and remedy the deficiencies noted in the defendants' letter of August 17, 2018 (Doc. No. 233-1, at 5-7). Counsel will meet and confer promptly about how best to manage the remedial discovery.

BY THE COURT:

s/Richard A. Lloret
RICHARD A. LLORET
U.S. MAGISTRATE JUDGE