d. Interrogatories. A maximum of 25 interrogatories, including contention interrogatories, are permitted for each side.

e. Depositions.

i. Limitation on Hours for Deposition Discovery.

Each side is limited to taking a total of 84 hours of testimony by deposition of fact witnesses upon oral examination, including depositions of third parties (other than experts), with a limit of seven (7) hours per witness. Plaintiffs' believe that 84 hours per side provides more than sufficient deposition time for the issues in this case, and provides 14 additional hours of deposition, i.e., two additional depositions, than the limits allowed by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30.

For expert deposition discovery, each side shall be entitled to a separate deposition for each Rule 26(a)(2)(B) opening or rebuttal report submitted by an expert, with a limit of seven (7) hours per deposition. If a party believes that additional hours for deposition are necessary, the parties shall meet and confer and try to reach agreement on the amount of additional hours needed, and thereafter, if unable to reach agreement, a party seeking modification of this provision may petition the Court through the Court's discovery dispute resolution procedures.

ii. Location of Depositions. Any party or representative (officer, director, or managing agent) of a party filing a civil action in this district court must ordinarily be required, upon request, to submit to a deposition at a place designated within this district. Exceptions to this general rule may be made by order of the Court or by agreement of the parties. Due to the ongoing effects of the Covid-19 pandemic, depositions may be taken remotely by agreement of the parties.

f. Discovery Matters and Disputes Relating to Protective Orders. Should counsel find they are unable to resolve a discovery matter or a dispute relating to a protective order, the parties involved in the discovery matter or protective order dispute shall contact the Court's Case Manager to schedule an in-person conference/argument. Unless otherwise ordered, by no later than seven business days prior to the conference/argument, any party seeking relief shall file with the Court a letter, not to exceed three pages, outlining the issues in dispute and its position on those issues. By no later than five business days prior to the conference/argument, any party opposing the application for relief may file a letter, not to exceed three pages, outlining that party's opposition. A party should include with its letter a proposed order with a detailed issue-by-issue ruling such that, should the Court agree with the party on a particular issue, the Court could sign the proposed order as to that issue, and the opposing party would be able to understand what it needs to do, and by when, to comply with the Court's order. Any proposed order shall be e-mailed, in Word format, simultaneously with filing to rga_civil@ded.uscourts.gov.

If a discovery-related motion is filed without leave of the Court, it will be denied without prejudice to the moving party's right to bring the dispute to the Court through the discovery matters procedures set forth in this Order.
